

The Hoxton is a series of open house hotels. With everything you need, and nothing you don't, we're inspired by the diversity and originality of the streets and scenes that surround us.

Just like our doors, our minds are open too. Ever since we opened our first hotel in Shoreditch, way back in 2006, we've never just been about offering a bed for the night. We want to be more than that: providing a place where guests can hang out alongside the locals and submerge themselves in the neighbourhood with vibrant, welcoming public spaces. Then there's Hoxtown, our eclectic programme of monthly events, where we bring the outside in, working with local creatives to curate events unique to each location.

The second in the series, The Hoxton, Holborn opened its doors on High Holborn in September 2014. The hotel houses 174 bedrooms that come in four different categories; from the Shoebox that's our smallest to the Roomy that's our biggest. Then there's Hubbard & Bell, our main restaurant and bar, Chicken Shop in the basement, Cheeky salon and Holborn Grind. Oh, and The Apartment, our meetings and events space for nailing that pitch, hosting clients or throwing parties...

The Hoxton, Amsterdam opened its doors on Herengracht in July 2015. Made up of 5 canal houses, this grand dame building was once home to the Mayor, way back in the 17th century. Now it has 111 rooms spread across 5 floors with plenty of quirks, including some monumental ceilings and lots of canal views. Downstairs, there's the restaurant Lotti's run in partnership with Soho House & Co, Up Top our mezzanine coffee and cocktail den, a lobby bar and The Apartment, our meetings and event space which doubles up as a home to Hoxtown, our events series.
