HISTORIC TOUR

Discover Utrecht and the history of Grand Hotel Karel V. The exceptional complex was built in 1348 on the commission of the Teutonic Order, a Catholic religious order of knights that was founded in ca. 1190 in the Holy Land. The building has functioned through the centuries as a monastery guesthouse and Military Hospital. Emperor Charles V (Karel V), after whom the present complex is named, was a guest here in 1546, when he was in Utrecht to attend a meeting of his knightly Order of the Golden Fleece. The history of the house and the order gives rise to numerous subjects that might be interesting for your target group; crusades, religious orders of knights, the history of the Teutonic Order, Charles V and his significance for Europe and the city of Utrecht, the Military Hospital, the Treaty of Utrecht, the practice of medicine in the 19th century and 20th century, archaeologically sound building restoration, garden landscaping, etc. As an experienced cultural historian, Llewellyn Bogaers knows how to present these themes in an exciting manner. The costs involved depend on your wishes and the size of the group. It is also possible to have the tour given in English or German. Instead of a tour, Llewellyn Bogaers can also present a lecture or historical introduction in one of our halls. For more information and to register, you can contact Llewellyn Bogaers after first consulting the events department (030-233 75 50).
