EAT WELL

scent Restaurant

Head chef Ottmar Pohl-Hoffbauer, is the heart and soul of scent restaurant at COSMO Hotel. A master in his craft, his sophisticated regional and sustainable compositions have been on the menu at the organically certified restaurant since 2010. His inspiring signature cuisine is hallmarked by clarity, purity and local products. Pohl-Hoffbauer is a patron of the slow food movement, and his creations are exclusively comprised of fair-trade ingredients, bringing naturally cultivated and produced flavors to your palate. Personally knowing his suppliers and producers has always been his credo. This constant exchange allows him to discover culinary innovations, which you can relish in his creations.

MEET WELL

Meetings

The COSMO Hotel provides everything necessary for a successful meeting. The modern environment provides peaceful surroundings in step with the pace of the capital city. The three meeting rooms are equipped with state-of-the-art technology, flooded with natural daylight and provide a concentrated working environment. Our scent restaurant is also available for your privately booked receptions and events.
