COMMUNITY

The hotel takes part in an important conservation projects with Hillingdon Council's Green Spaces to help plants and wildlife flourish in local parks, by clearing local rivers and land from invasive species.

The hotel works closely with WWF's annual event 'Earth Hour' for awareness of climate change. Lights are turned off for an hour and a 'glow show' is put on for the local community. WWF value our contribution, sending a film crew to cover the event and feature us on their website.

We have also started work with Green Corridor, London's leading learning organisation using horticultural based training to unlock potential in young people. The charity links young people with the environments around them, engaging them in volunteering programmes.

We are working with Project Search, providing a year round on property training with teachers and coaches for young people with learning disabilities. We are the first Marriott hotel to offer the programme in the UK.

We also provide:

- Electric Car Charging Stations
- Journey Planner on website
- Harlington Hospice's garden maintenance
