"Sem Porta". The hotels' main restaurant finds its inspiration in the local rice storing facilities.

Here, a seasonal cuisine of communion and respect for nature is practiced. Our Chef uses regional products and works with local fishermen and wineries to reinvent typical Portuguese and Alentejo dishes.

DA COMPORTA

Located in the heart of the stunning Comporta region, in Portugal, the Jacaré da Comporta restaurant transports good Italian flavors to this coastal paradise. The space combines a Bahian style with local historical roots, incorporating emblematic elements such as Alentejo blankets and wheat bags, thus celebrating the traditions of the region.

The menu, deeply inspired by Italian recipes, is meticulously prepared with fresh local ingredients, guaranteeing a true journey of flavors. The heart of Jacaré da Comporta's kitchen is its wood-fired oven, where culinary masters bring to life pizzas with a perfectly toasted crust and a smoking aroma that will delight your taste buds.

service in a sublime
