OWNERSHIP: Britannia Hotel is a family-owned company, conceived by Norwegian financier, Odd Reitan, who was born in Trondheim in 1951.

OWNER: Odd Reitan

MANAGING DIRECTOR: Mikael Forselius

OVERVIEW: The historic Britannia Hotel was founded in 1870 in Trondheim, Norway. Today, it is the northernmost Grand Dame hotel in the world. Britannia's storied past includes hosting royalty, diplomats, explorers, celebrities and artists. After being purchased by Odd Reitan, the hotel was closed for a three-year, $150 million renovation. Reopened, fully restored in April 2019, Britannia is a 5-star hotel, and the northernmost member of The Leading Hotels of The World. The hotel is also a member of the exclusive American Express Fine Hotel & Resorts program.

HISTORY: Britannia Hotel first opened its doors to its discerning guests in 1870. The name Britannia was chosen by the original founder Andreas Myhre, to attract British aristocracy who travelled to Trondheim to fish salmon. The oldest part of today's building is the grand, cream colored façade, which dates back 1897. Entirely renovated in 2019, the hotel has been named the Best Hotel in Norway by Fodor's and has appeared on many "best of" lists. Known for its service, world-class dining and luxury accommodations, Britannia serves savvy travelers from around the globe.

SIGNATURE BRITANNIA

SERVICE:

Britannia's 5-star service is second to none. From the moment guests are welcomed by the doormen, they feel the friendly attention being paid to every detail.

DINING:

Critically acclaimed for its award-winning cuisine, the Britannia offers four unique dining options:

Speilsalen, 2020 MICHELIN Guide 1-star award, the hotel's formal dining room is hosted by World Champion Chef and Bocuse d'Or silver medalist 2017, Christopher Davidsen. Prix-fixe, 6 or 10-course seasonal menu.

Jonathan Grill, the first restaurant in Norway with signature Japanese personal table grills. Guests may cook their own high-quality meats, fish and produce; a delicious and interactive dinner experience.

Palmehaven, the hotel's lovely centerpiece, dating back to 1918. Serving breakfast daily, afternoon tea, lunch and special occasion dinners.

Brasserie Britannia, a French brasserie serving lunch and dinner daily, with classic French comfort food such as mussels, steak, soups, salads and sandwiches.

The hotel's two bars offer distinctly different experiences. Light bites are offered at each:

Vinbaren, is the wine bar, with three cozy rooms lined with nearly 8,000 bottles in glass walled storage. Extensive selection of by-the-glass. Wine maker's dinners and wine tastings occur on a regular basis.

Britannia Bar, the hotel's main bar, with a special menu of craft cocktails, each with a story tied to Trondheim's history. Bubbles, beers and drinks of all types served.

SPA:

The 1,400 sq m spa and fitness area includes a 12.5m heated lap pool, three Nordic saunas, a mineral pool, and six treatments rooms. An extensive menu of services available including massages, wraps & scrubs, facials pedicure & manicure. Spa products by ELEMIS (UK).
