LOY PeLA

VOYAGES

Loy Pela invites you on an unforgettable voyage aboard the Loy Dream and Loy River Song. Encounter historic ruins and traditional rustic villages. Relax into the steady flow of river life and marvel at the breathtaking natural beauty, from the comfort of your sundeck. Experience the vibrant culture and customs of Thailand, complemented by the unique and unparalleled service of Loy Pela.

Loy Pela offers luxurious, private voyages along Thailand's majestic Chao Phraya River, cruising from Thailand's new capital, Bangkok - to the old capital, Ayuthaya in a journey through the ages.

Loy Dream

With her two air-conditioned staterooms, each of 25sqm accommodating 2 persons, and her ornate design, the Loy Dream evokes memories of a bygone era, while old world antiques, elegant Thai silks and fresh cut flowers create a naturally soothing ambience.

Sink into the deepest of sleeps in your plush king-size bed with your choice of pillow type. Each ensuite bathroom features soft bathrobes, slippers and a choice of locally made herbal soaps.

Loy River Song

Boasting four air-conditioned staterooms, each with its own ensuite, and more than 100sqm of separate living space, the Loy River Song provides the utmost comfort for up to 8 persons. With her sleek modern design and state of the art facilities, Loy River Song truly delivers an exceptional onboard experience. Guests can choose to recline in the lounge, banquet in the dining room or catch some rays on the sundeck. Stylish furnishings are interspersed with old world antiques and unique objets d'art.

Like the Loy Dream, Loy River Song offers a plush king-size bed with your choice of pillow type. Each ensuite bathroom featuring Thai silk bathrobes, by Jim Thompson®, comfortable soft slippers and a choice of hand-made herbal soaps.

THAI COOKING CLASS

Much more than just a cooking class, Spice Spoons offers a rich and interactive immersion in Thailand's world famous gastronomy, renowned for its artistry and unique four flavour balance of salty, sweet, spicy and pungent. Relish an intriguing local market experience and unforgettable transport by traditional longtail boat or Thailand's famous three wheeler tuk-tuk. Learn about Thai cuisine's cultural significance and health benefits, indigenous ingredients and cooking equipment, as well as convenient replacements to use at home.

Cook your favourites in a step by step class, either in our purpose designed cooking school with a garden and river view, or aboard a beautifully restored antique rice barge as you cruise the majestic Chao Phraya River. Savour your creations for lunch and enjoy the option of adding garnishing and table set up classes. Leave with wonderful memories and impressive new skills to entertain family and friends back home.

LEISURE & EXCURSION

Temple of Dawn (Wat Arun)

Built at the height of the Ayutthaya period the temple features a crowned roof porch and a Cambodian style tower known as a “prang”. The prang is 82 metres high and is covered with a multicoloured array of Chinese porcelain. The temple was named as such because the first light of morning is reflected off the surface of the temple with a pearly iridescence.

Wat Pho (Temple of the Reclining Buddha)

This temple features the oldest Reclining Buddha in Bangkok and the largest in the country measuring 46 metres long. It is also well known for its Traditional Massage School. Built in the 16th century during the Ayutthaya period, it was almost completely rebuilt in 1781 by King Rama I.

The Grand Palace and Wat Phra Kaew (Temple of the Emerald Buddha)

The majestic Grand Palace built over 3 years and completed in 1785. Wat Phra Kaew, also known as the Temple of the Emerald Buddha. History tells that the Emerald Buddha was stolen and later returned to Thailand from Laos in 1778 by General Chao Phraya Chakkri, who later became King Rama I.

ICONSIAM

ICONSIAM, newly opened in Nov 2018, the ultimate shopping destination by the riverside. The complex, houses over 500 shops and 100 restaurants from more than 30 different countries. SookSiam brings the best of Thailand's provinces into one "village", while ICONCRAFT curates high quality Thai craft.
